4  1  7

Set on 100 acres, this secluded property boasts plenty of infrastructure and a wonderful country home with timber panel flooring complemented by soft palettes of grey and white throughout.

An open plan living area is generously sized and opens onto verandah areas. The large slow combustion heater provides plenty of warmth in the winter and there really is nothing like a toasty fire on a winters evening.

They say the heart of any house is the kitchen and this is the case for this home. Stylish with modern tones of white cupboards with dark splashbacks, it is light filled and boasts a huge island breakfast bar big enough to fit the whole family! Featuring plenty of cupboard space, a large wall pantry and room for a twin door fridge, there's also a large stainless steel freestanding oven and open
